

Interdisciplinary
Graduate Student
Conference in Medieval Studies

Keynote Address

Friday, 5:30 – 7:00

Re:forming the Pavement Hours (York Minster XVI.K.6)

Jessica Brantley

Yale University

Reforming the Past

Saturday, 10:15 – 12:00

Moderator: Maura Nolan

Reformed In-Formation:
False Confession and Ritual
Disruption in Caxton's
'Translation'

Helen Cushman

Harvard University

Reforming Habits and
Heathens: The Devil in Old
English Law Codes

Owen Roberson

University of Leicester

Between Troy and Adam:
Understanding Medieval
Genealogy as Political and Philosophical Argument

Kiel Shaub

UCLA

UCLA

Respondent: Jasmin Borja

Reforming the Church

Saturday, 2:00 – 3:00

Moderator: Maureen Miller

Abbatial Leadership and Monastic Reform in the Early-eleventh-century
Empire: How Much of a
Free Agent was Poppo of Stavelot (d. 1048)?

Koen Vanheule

University of Ghent

Bernard of Clairvaux and
the Languedoc Heretics:
A Double Standard for Reform?

Andrew Jacob Cuff

Catholic University of America

Respondent: Joshua O'Brien

Reforming Authority

Saturday, 3:30 – 5:00

Moderator: Niklaus Largier

On the Afterlife of Some Heretical Notions: The
Transformation of Meister
Eckhart's Thought in the Texts of Henry Suso and Johannes Tauler

Alex Dubilet

UC Berkeley

The Construction of a
Medieval Hippocrates:
Reinventing a Classical Tradition

Marco Viniestra

Harvard University

Making the Troubadours
Respectable: The Case for Courtly Love and Marriage
in Matfre d'Ermengaud's
Breviari d'Amor

Kathryn Levine

UC Berkeley

Respondent: Spencer Strub
