

MEDIEVAL BOUNDARY-MAKING

Second Annual Stanford-Berkeley Medieval Graduate Student Conference

April 6th, 2019

9:30-4:00

Berkeley, Dwinelle Hall, Room 3335

Sponsored by the Berkeley Medieval Studies Program and Stanford CMEMS

For more information please contact christene\_stratman@berkeley.edu or rforke@stanford.edu.

MEDIEVAL BOUNDARY-MAKING

9:30 Breakfast

10:00 Opening Remarks

10:15 Session 1: Religion

Moderator: N.N., Stanford

Ana Núñez (Stanford, History) "Claiming the Holy Land on Foot and in Pen: The Gesta Francorum et aliorum Hierosolimitanorum"

Samuel Stubblefield (UC Berkeley, History) "St. Boniface and Models of Episcopacy"

Lane Baker (Stanford, History) "'They Became a Nuisance': The Decline of the Flagellants in Strasbourg, 1349"

11:45 Lunch Break (provided)

12:45 Session 2: Ecology, Image and Text

Moderator: Prof. Jonas Wellendorf, UC Berkeley

Erik Yingling (Stanford, Art History) "Body Boundaries: Metamorphosis, Metaphor, and the Ecological Imaginary"

Tiffany White (UC Berkeley, Scandinavian) "The Boundaries Between Nature and Culture in Old Icelandic Literature"

Johannes Junge Ruhland (Stanford, French) "On Drawing Lines. Philological Practices, Manuscripts, and the Question of 'Text'"

2:15 Break

2:30 Session 3: Beyond the Latin West

Moderator: Prof. Maureen Miller, UC Berkeley

Shoufu Yin (UC Berkeley, History) "Promoting Female Commanders in Medieval China: War, Gender and Imperial Rhetoric from Transnational Perspectives"

Kaitlin Forgash (UC Berkeley, History) "Selling People in Medieval Japan: Stretching Boundaries through the Law"

Leonardo Grao Velloso Damato Oliveira (Stanford, Comparative Literature) "Alternative Geography: Time as Boundary-Making in Inca Garcilaso's Comentarios Reales (1609)"